

Security Guard Training

Address: 117 West 116th Street 2b New York, NY 10026

Phone number: [843] 229-3665

WEBSITE: Nn116sgt1.odoo.com

Email: Jacques@nn116sgt.com

SCHOOL CATALOG

Program Overview:

The Security Guard Training Program provides comprehensive instruction to prepare individuals for a professional career in private security. The program complies with [State/Province] regulatory standards and prepares students for state licensing examinations.

Program Objectives:

- Understand the legal authority and limitations of a security guard
- Learn techniques for observation, patrol, and reporting
- Develop communication and conflict resolution skills
- Gain knowledge in emergency procedures, use of force, and public relations
- Receive certification in CPR/First Aid and basic self-defense (if applicable)

Curriculum

Module 1: Introduction to Security:

- Role of a Security Guard
- Ethics and Professional Conduct
- Private Security vs Law Enforcement

Module 2: Legal Aspects:

- Legal Responsibilities
- Use of Force Continuum

- Laws of Arrest, Search & Seizure

Module 3: Patrol Procedures:

- Types of Patrol
- Observation Techniques
- Incident Reporting & Documentation

Module 4: Emergency Response:

- Fire Safety and Evacuation
- Medical Emergencies
- Bomb Threats & Natural Disasters

Module 5: Communication & Conflict Resolution:

- Verbal De-escalation Techniques
- Radio Use and Codes
- Report Writing

Module 6: Specialized Training (Optional or Advanced):

- CPR & First Aid Certification
- Defensive Tactics
- Workplace Violence Prevention
- Surveillance Techniques
- Security Systems and Technology

Program Length:

- Basic Course: 8–16 hours (depending on state regulations)
- Advanced Training: Additional 20–40 hours
- CPR/First Aid: 4–6 hours (separate certification)

Admissions Requirements:

- Must be at least 18 years old
- High school diploma or GED (recommended)
- Government-issued photo ID
- Background check (required for licensing)

Tuition & Fees:

- Basic Training Course: $XXX
- Advanced Training Modules: $XXX per module
- Materials Fee: $XX
- CPR/First Aid Certification: $XX (if not included)

Financial aid or payment plans may be available.

Completion and Certification:

Upon successful completion, students will receive a Certificate of Completion and assistance with the State Security Guard Licensing Application.

Job Placement Assistance:

Graduates will have access to:

- Job boards and hiring events
- Resume and interview preparation
- Direct referrals to partnering security companies